We are happy to report that "ONE CLAP", Neil Aitchison, will be returning for the 13th straight year as our Master of Ceremonies.

Neil is Senior Manager of Market Development for Melloul-Blamey Construction Company. His second career is connected to the Drayton Entertainment Group.

For the last few years, he was featured as Constable Archibald F. Inkster in Drayton's production of 'Sorry I'm Canadian'. This year he'll be featured in the '50's musical 'ShBoom' and the Christmas production 'Merry and Bright'.

SLEEPING CHILDREN VOLUNTEER SPEAKER TED SWANSTON

Ted heard founder Murray Dryden speak about Sleeping Children Around the World and was instantly hooked. He started volunteering with the charity in 1997 and since then has been on eighteen trips to Asia, Africa and Central America.

Ted was drawn to the fact that 100% of every bedkit donation goes to contents, the charity is volunteer driven, and many bedkit items are manufactured in the country of distribution. He has held various leadership roles in Sleeping Children and has been a member of the Board of Directors since 2006.

Come out on May 2nd to hear why Ted is so passionate about Sleeping Children, and some of his experiences during his years as a volunteer.

A donation of $5,000 entitles a sponsor to a table of 10 and recognition. This generous donation covers most expenses of the breakfast event, so that all supporter donations can significantly build Sleeping Children's Legacy Fund.
